

Waterside Village Condominium Association

Rules & Regulations

Approved and adopted by the Board of Directors of the Waterside Village Condominium Association (WVCA) on October 18, 2023

BRIEF HISTORY – The Waterside Village Condominium Association (WVCA) has 12 sub-associations consisting 414 total units. Each association has their own board of directors, Declaration of Condominium and Rules & Regulations. The WVCA, with a board of seven directors, has a clubhouse, 3 heated pools with cabanas, a tennis/pickleball court facility, a bocce ball court and shuffleboard courts.

The Board of Directors of The Waterside Village Condominium Association established these Rules and Regulations to ensure the security, privacy and comfort of the entire WVCA community. The Rules and Regulations also ensure that the Association upholds the laws and regulations of Sarasota County. It is the responsibility of Residents to ensure that their guests and/or employees comply with Association's Rules and Regulations. For clarification of any item or for further information, please consult the Condominium Documents, including the Association's Declaration and By-Laws which may be found on the WVCA website, or contact the Association's Management Office.

DEFINITIONS - For purposes of clarity, the defined terms in this handbook are as follows: The Waterside Village Condominium Association (WVCA) is referred to as the Association. The Board of Directors is referred to as the Board. On occasion the Board appoints committees, composed of a member of the Board and residents who are willing to serve and bring expertise to specific assignments. The Rules and Regulations are referred to as the Rules. The Association's Management Office is referred to as the Management Company. The head of the Association's staff and contract employees is referred to as the Property Manager. Unit Owners, lessees, tenants, immediate family members and permanent guests are generally referred to as Residents. Condominiums are referred to as Units. The term Condominium Property refers to the buildings, amenities and all surrounding grounds owned by the Waterside Village Community Association.

AMENDMENTS AND UPDATES – The Rules and Regulations document, will be reviewed and, as needed, updated by the Association's Board or a Board-appointed Committee. The Association's By-laws supplant the Rules; any changes in the By-laws will be reflected in the Rules and Regulations. These amendments will be posted on the WVCA website for the Owners to view at least thirty (30) days prior to their effective date.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE RULES AND REGULATIONS - Non-compliance with any of these Rules, which govern the Association, may subject a Resident to a fine or prohibiting their use of the WVCA amenities. The decision as to whether a fine is to be imposed or the amount of the fine shall be determined by the Board of Directors.
